

Best Of You

Bend Sinister

I got myself in a bit of a jam,
Getting all wrapped up with you, goddamn,
    But it's alright (it's alright)
You look so good that you make me high,
    I'm telling you it ain't no lie
Well it's alright (it's alright)Well I had to play your games
    But it's you that's going down in flames
Well I didn't think twice when I rolled those dice
    The odd were on my side[Chorus]
    Cause I could tell right from the start
    That you were out to break my heart
        And you think that I don't see
        What it is you're doing to me
        So I'm gonna jump the gun (the gun)
        I'm not gonna be the one (the one)
To let you get the best of me (let you get the best of me)
    And there's nothing you can say or do
'Cause I'm the one leaving youI'm pretty sure you have nothing to say You're just so used to getting your way
        but it's alright (it's alright)
        Don't get me wrong it's been fun
        But girls like you are always wrong
But it's alright (it's alright)'Cause I had to play your games
    But it's you that's going down in flames
    Well I didn't think twice when I rolled those dice
The odd were on my side[Chorus]I'm the one leaving you (x3)[Chorus]
