Rumor Control

Jordyn Taylor

Ah-oh, Ah-oh, Ah-oh [x2] Listen up girls, pay attention Take some notes on the things I'm about to mention Sick and tired of the gossip and the drama Heard it's coming straight from you Just a young girl with ambition Not looking for a fight or competition There you go telling lies, spreading rumours Of the things that just ain't true This is rumour control And I'm calling you out just to let you know This is rumour control Fed up with deception so won't you listen No more secrets Your lies are so obscene Can't live my life with all these drama queens All these whispers, dirty looks becoming more then I can take I've come to realize I'm never gonna please you I'll tighten up my crew so another race through All the scandal and envy, betrayal You girls are just to fake This is rumour control And I'm calling you out just to let you know This is rumour control Fed up with deception so won't you listen This is rumour control And I'm calling you out just to let you know

Ah-oh, Ah-oh, Ah-oh [x2]
Sweetie it's easy to see
Stepping all over my feet
You couldn't dance for your life
Trying to flow with my mike
Baby I'm keeping it tight
I know he's keeping it right
Here we roll with no doubt, no fear
Still clear so take notes
Writing for life, right till I die

This is rumour control

Tossing them up, head to the sky HATER! Keep it real, we taking them higher And bring in the fire You can't deny her The devil's a liar And taking my closer They talking but so what Well here comes the beat up Keeping my feet up Who's staging the shots now? She's got the heat now We're kids to the street now This is rumour control [x5] Ah-oh This is rumour control Ah-oh This is rumour control
