

Unspoken

Acretongue

What we have is unspoken
It's a silent kind of emotion
Everytime your eyes are wide open
Baby I can read your mind
It's unspoken
And my heart's not gonna get broken
'Cause we don't need any devotion
When our love stays in our eyes
So I don't say a word
'Cause she already knows
That she's my better half
That's what she'd better know
She always tells me yes
She never tells me no
If I went, they'd hold me back
She's telling me to go
So I don't need the world
Pulling up on my throat
I just need my girl
Believing my every quote
Telling me I can fly
So I don't need to float
That's why I walk on water
If she inside a boat
Go weather the storm
And cover every slope
Together we're forever
So I won't ever hope
That she'll be mine forever
'Cause I already know
That what we have is magic
'Cause she my pedestal
And I can reach the sky
If I don't let her go
So all I do is climb
'Cause I will never fall
No I'll never fail
'Cause with her
I will throw every ball

And though I never say a word
My love's already spoke
What we have is unspoken
It's a silent kind of emotion
Anytime your eyes are wide open
Baby I can read your mind
It's unspoken
'Cause we don't need any devotion
When our love stays in our eyes
It's unspoken
I give her everything
'Cause what she is to me
Is more than anything
So I ain't scared to let her breathe
'Cause when you love somebody

You gotta let them be
That's why I let her fly
And she come back to me
Like Cinderella
She's my umbrella in every storm
She's picture perfect
So I'll protect her through every war
Through every summer
Or every winter or every fall
I spring through fire to get her
Smashing through every wall
All just for the love
That she has give me
And more to show the love
That I am giving she
So ya'll better forgive me
For my wicked dream
I did it all
In the name of love repeatedly
'Cause I remember every time
That she's forgiven me
And I'll be by her side
Until the Lord delivers me
And then delivers she
'Cause I don't wanna be
In hell, earth or even heaven
If she ain't there with me
What we have is unspoken

It's a silent kind of emotion
Anytime your eyes are wide open
Baby I can read your mind
It's unspoken
It's a silent kind of emotion
Anytime your eyes are wide open
Baby I can read your mind
It's unspoken
'Cause we don't need any devotion
When our love stays in our eyes
'Cause I remember every time
That she's forgiven me
In hell, earth or even heaven
If she ain't there with me
What we have is unspoken
It's unspoken
'Cause we don't need any devotion
When our love stays in our eyes
It's unspoken
