

No Need to Worry

Folk Implosion

Never know what I'm looking for until I find it
Never know where I am until I leave
Not aware that I care until I'm angry
Never know what I'm thinking until I dream
No need to worry, think that I'm a loner but I'm never alone
No need to worry, waiting for the summer but I won't be at home
No need to worry, I don't understand it
I don't know what I'm looking for until it finds me
Never know where I am until I leave
Not aware that I care until I'm angry
Never know what I'm thinking until I dream
No need to worry, think that I'm a loner but I'm never alone
No need to worry, waiting for the summer but I won't be at home
No need to worry, one who needs another but the other's unknown
No need to worry, I don't understand it
