

Shut out the World

Eve to Adam

Lock me in this place forever

Throw away the key

Cause all that matters

Is you and me

Lock me in this place forever

Its where i wanna be

Cause all that matters

Is you and me

Outside these walls there is so much noise
Sometimes its hard for me to hear your voice

Above the crowd, outside the lines

The bitter shades of black and white

But i ve seen colours in your eyes

Felt things i dont recognize

I cant deny, i cant escape

A bound that holds and never breaks

So lay here with me

And shut out the world

Shut out the world

Lay here with me

And shut out the world

Shut out the world

Lock me in this place forever

Throw away the key

Cause all that matters is you and me

Lock me in this place forever

Its where i wanna be

Cause all that matters

Is you and me

Inside this room you are safe from all
The precious that you ve been fighting off

I ll lift the weight, i ll light the dark

I ll let you be just who you are

So open up and let me see

What you ve been hiding underneath

I cant deny, i cant escape

A bound that holds and never breaks

So lay here with me
And shut out the world
Shut out the world
Lay here with me
And shut out the world
Shut out the world

We made it here from nothing
And turned it into something
I dont need anything or anything else
But you

Lock me in this place forever
Throw away the key
Its where i wanna be

Lock me in this place forever
Throw away the key
Its where i wanna be
Is you and me
