You're Not Welcome Here

Phantom Planet

Upon the hour of your arrival
I will draw the line
You take your side of the city
Don't set foot on mineYou told me when we met
I told you when you left
That we're through, we're through
So I thought you knew
You disappeared
Now you're not welcome hereAcross the park we used to walk through
Keep that for yourself
Well the next that heard you wouldn't have me
That's for someone elseThat is mine to keep
That is mine to keep
I know at least
I shared my keys
Made it clear
That you're not welcome hereI told you when we met
You told me when you left
I know at least
I shared my keys
Made it clear
That you're not welcome hereYou're not welcome here
You're not welcome here
You're not welcome here
