

You Won't Be Lonely Now

Billy Ray Cyrus

I know you seen all your dreams turn to dust
I know your hearts been left in the rain to rust
But you wont be lonely now I see the long trail of tears in your eyes
Back to the day when the innocence died
But you wont be lonely now I wanna give you everything you need
I wanna show you
You wont be lonely
You wont be lonely now Holding you here like a rose in the dark
I make this promise to you from my heart
You wont be lonely now I wanna give you everything you need
I wanna show you
You wont be lonely now
I'll do anything to make you see
How I'm gonna love you
You wont be lonely
You wont be lonely Now that your here in my arms I'm alive
For the first time in a long time I
Look at my face in the mirror and see
The man I've wanted to be, oh yeah, woo ooh I wanna give you everything you need
I wanna show you
You wont be lonely now
I'll do anything to make you see
How I'm gonna love you
You wont be lonely
You wont be lonely
You wont be lonely now
