An Epic Journey

The YOGSCAST

Deep under ground, a young dwarf dreaming of the world
He never knew he looked above,
The trees and mountain height and sore a mount of blue,
o-o-o
They told him dwarfs could never fly so high,
They left and said, he fail if he tried,
He left his home, and his life behind,
His dream burning like a rocket insideSo strap yourself into the rocket now, rocket now,
What as the count down seconds tick by,
Hope and pray that you'll make it now,
You'll never know, if you don't trySo strap yourself into the rocket now, rocket now,
You got your friends right by your side, o-o-o-o
Final check's then you close your eyes,
Your dream burnin, like a rocket inside
Like a rocket inside, o-o
Your dream burnin, insideYour dream budding like a rocketDeep under ground, a young dwarf dreaming of the world
He never knew he looked above,
The trees and mountain height and sore a mount of blue,
o-o-o
They told him dwarfs could never fly so high,
They left and said, he'd fail if he tried,
He left his home, and his life behind,
His dream budding like a rocket insideSo strap yourself into the rocket now, rocket now,
What as the count down seconds tick by,
Hope and pray that you'll make it now,
You'll never know, if you don't try
So strap yourself into the rocket now, rocket now (so strap yourself into the rocket),
You got your friends right by your side (you got your friends by your side),
Final checks then you close your eyes,
Your dream budding, like a rocket insideYour dream budding, like a rocket,
Your dream budding like a rocket inside
