

Third Eye (Jeff Campbell Remix)

Tool

Dreaming of that face again
It's bright and blue and shimmering
Grinning wide
And comforting me with it's three warm and wild eyes
On my back and tumbling
Down that hole and back again
Rising up

And wiping the webs and the dew from my withered eye
In, out, in, out, in, outA child's rhyme stuck in my head
It said that life is but a dream
I've spent so many years in question
To find I've known this all along
So good to see you
I've missed you so much
So glad it's over
I've missed you so much
Came out to watch you play
Why are you running away?
Came out to watch you play

Why are you running? Shrouding all the ground around me
Is this holy crow above me
Black as holes within a memory
And blue as our new second sun
I stick my hand into his shadow
To pull the pieces from the sand
Which I attempt to reassemble
To see just who I might have been
I do not recognize the vessel
But the eyes seem so familiar
Like phosphorescent desert buttons
Singing one familiar song
So good to see you
I've missed you so much
So glad it's over
I've missed you so much
Came out to watch you play
Why are you running away?
Came out to watch you play

Why are you running away? Prying open my third eye
Prying open my third eye

Prying open my third eye

Prying open my third eyeSo good to see you once again

I thought that you were hiding

And you thought that I had run away

Chasing the tail of dogma

I opened my eye

I opened my eye

I opened my eye and there we were

I opened my eye

I opened my eye

I opened my eye and there we wereSo good to see you once again

I thought that you were hiding from me

And you thought that I had run away

Chasing a trail of smoke and reason

Prying open my third eye
