

We Got This

Madina Lake

Phone cutting in and out, this God Damn reception again I missed,
Two calls and when we talk you asked me why you're in an ambulance.
I dropped my phone as I go numb, til I saw your face.
You smiled at me and said, "I've never felt this kind of pain, help me." I promise, we've got this, don't let em win.
Cause forever, forever's not suppose to end. Late on the street, you heard the screams and you saw her getting beat.
No shock to me you jumped between, now we're racing to surgery.
They wouldn't let me come with.
The last thing I heard them say, "I think we're losing him." I promise, we've got this, don't let em win.
Cause forever, forever's not suppose to end.
Like you said to me once, there's no me, without us. Where did you go when you didn't remember me?
It was hard but I knew, you'd never leave.
I tried to be as strong as, you've always been.
But for the very first time, I was prepared to take my own life. I promise, we've got this, don't let em win.
Cause forever, forever's not suppose to end.
Like you said to me once, there's no me, without us.
