

We Have No Mother

Cultus Sanguine

As bastard sons of hate
of men
we came to bring our lies among the pure
we rise to announce
the fall of your lord
we are here to winWe have no mother
we are born
from hate
We have no mother
we are bornSo with our lies
well prevail
among men
we are here
to bring diseaseWe have no mother
we are born
from hate
We have no mother
we are bornWe are here
to see falling
all your thruths
we rise to announce
under sun
dying sun
we are here to winAll is falling and the pure
returns to the side of lie
