In the Night

Naked Aggression

We sit and laugh out loud
At stupid comments made to put us down
We laugh but we don't smile
What does this tell you? we got so fucked up every night
And in the morning when we wake up
We'll do anything to pass time
But in the night seems like we're the only ones alright (x2)
People like security
There life becomes so stale it becomes monotonous
I cannot live like that
What does this tell you? I want to get more out of life
During the working day it's constantly
A conflict with the mainstream crowd
But in the night seems like we're the only ones alright (x2)
We sit and laugh out loud
At stupid comments made to put us down
We laugh but we don't smile
What does this tell you? we got so fucked up every night
Kill kill kill me I don
