

My Baby's Gonna Carry On

Widowspeak

The summer babes it'd all been lying out
It was a year we never talk about
Then way far off you saw the storm
What doesn't burn out will keep you warm And in the time of tallboys
Under all the upstairs noise
For your sake I quiet it down
I have my cake and you had your doubt Long gone, my baby's gonna carry on x2 Under palms our cards are lying out
And there were signs we never talk about
Then you could read me like the lines
Then I know you'll get over it in time Long gone, my baby's gonna carry on
