

Queen Of Hearts

Gregg Allman

Once I was glad
Always happy never sad
And every day
Seemed like Sunday
And although things were slow
Never seemed to have no dough
Somehow, I never once got lonely Ya' see the fact is more or less
You're gamblin' with your own happiness
And most all your would be friends
Turn out so phoney
Oh but times they change
And rearrange And I'll sing to the Queen of Hearts
Don't know where to start
Or how to stop And after things have come and gone
Left me feelin'
That I've done so wrong
Oh, I wasted so much time
Feelin' guilty
And as I watch you sit across the room
Beautiful as the flowers bloom
T'Leave it lay just one day
Oh brother you're gonna come back
To find it gone I love you queen of Hearts
Tell me not to stop
Just tell me where
To start
Where now baby
Tell me where to start And after all that we've been through
I find that when I think of you
A warm soft wind runs
Through and through
And in my heart
There's only you
And I will always keep on trying
To gather this strange piece of mind
Without it there'd be Lonely me and
Oh darlin' lonely you I love you Queen of Hearts
Don't tell me when to stop

Tell me when to start I love you queen of Hearts
Tell me not to stop
Just tell me where
To start

Songwriters

ALLMAN, GREGG L. Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>