Cast the First Stone

Silent Civilian

Stand, we unite
We are together till the bloody end
Kill for less, We live forever
(We'll) never be forgottenSpare, not the ones who will engage us
Opposition falls trust and
Friendship are contagious
Loyalty foreverNow closed fist we fight
Avenge the blood of a friend
We crush front lines
We bring a means to an endPain, built with tolerance and callous
A fire within us all
Can't destroy what is the balance
Of our unificationWith blood and tears we stand alone
The sacred oath we've taken
We have no fear to cast the stone
We will not be forsakenNow closed fist we fight
Avenge the blood of a friend
We crush front lines
We bring a means to an endWe all are bound by one another
Fighting side by side
Answer only to eachother
Never be dictatedWith blood and tears we stand alone
The sacred oath we've taken
We have no fear to cast the stone
We will not be forsaken
