Walk With Me

The Classic Crime

Blissful ignorance.
There's no one competent enough to care.
I am the water that fills your lungs
and slowly forces out the air.Take a deep breath,
Take a deep breath;
You're almost there.
Now fall asleep;
Slow heartbeat;
Go to nowhere.Walk with me through winding streets
of solid gold under our feet.
If for Heaven I would gladly die
then why am I not complete?Take a deep breath,
Take a deep breath;
You're almost there.
I am the fire that burns your wings
and sends you falling through the air.
Wake your tired soul and follow me to nowhere.I will not harm you (I will not harm you);
I am competent enough to careWalk with me through winding streets
of solid gold under our feet.
If for Heaven I would gladly die
then why am I not complete?
