Another Chance

Paul Banks

Gun fire explosion, I want that guarantee
Sometimes I think I coexist with me.
And one side makes me old
And one side makes me struggle,
I was on the nightshift, I said Ill never run a fight like this.In the meantime, Im gonna shut it tight like a briefcase.
cause in my moon mine its a summer night and I watch it break.Change my full conclusion when I was 17,
Sometimes I feel diminished by routine.
Its one night, two years cold, next shes making me doubles,
Im drinking moonshine, because Ive had enough of starlight.In the meantime, Im gonna shut it tight like a briefcase.
cause in my moon mine its a summer night and I watch it break.So just sit back, I dont mind
See how long Ive been chased.
Dont you see I have to pay for that?
I paid for that, I paid for that.
And now youll pay me back.Death will come by ocean, I want that guarantee.
Sometimes I think Im offering a dream.In the meantime, Im gonna shut it tight like my briefcase.
cause in my moon mine its a summer night and I watch it break.So just sit back, I dont mind
See how long Ive been chased.
Dont you see I have to pay for that?
I paid for that, I paid for that.
And now youll pay me back.
I paid for that, in very many steps.
I paid for that, now youll pay me back,
Now youll pay me back, now youll pay me back,
Now youll pay me back, now youll pay me back

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/