

The One Who Knocks

Four Nights Gone

A broken man, has a plan, as his life fades away
No one knows, how he goes, about his life hid in mystery
A family ,torn apart, beaten down by what he does
Breaking bad, going mad, with all this power he hasSpent his whole life scared, 50 years beyond repair
He cant turn back the clocks, He is known as the one who knocksShes back at home, Turned to stone, filling him, with anger
She says to him, your in danger, he turns and says i am the danger
A family ,torn apart, beaten down by what he does
Breaking bad, going mad, with this power he hasI wont be I cant be brought down (can't be brought down)
Im too far to back out now (back out now)
You know me and what Ive done (what i've done) you fear what Ive become.With depth in his mind, depth in his soul
Wanting to be there, never getting a chance to showNo, You dont, know all these struggles that I face
No, you wont, dare take me down from this place, where I reign
