Ben Lee

Well, thanks for comin? to dinner
Yeah, I?m glad we?re friends
But honestly I?m not ready
For this evenin? to end
It?s only 10 o?clock
And I don?t feel much tired at all
When I get a taste of somethin?
I always want some more
?Cause I?m tired of bein? alone
I wanna take you home
You stole my heart, I should have known
I wanna take you home
So how about a cup of coffee
Or we could get a snack
Or if you?re headin? uptown
Maybe we could share a cab
I don?t wanna be rude
Don?t mean to be obscene
It?s just that I feel so much better
When you?re next to me
?Cause I?m tired of bein? alone
I wanna take you home
It started big, the feeling?s grown
I wanna take you home, take you home tonight
?Cause I could live without you
I could live without you
I could live without you
I just don?t want to
I?m tired of bein? alone
I wanna take you home
You stole my heart, I should have known
I wanna take you home
?Cause I?m tired of bein? alone
I wanna take you home
It started big, the feeling?s grown
I wanna take you home
