

Redemption

Rites Of Ash

"Just move on" she said. No harder words were spoken.
They echo in my head ensuring lives are broken.
I saw her face that day like watching lives play on the screen.
I knew she'd get away and live longer on and happy in her...

Dreams like she would live forever.
Live like she had always dreamed.

This is your redemption.
There is no other way to rebuild your faith in me.
No second chances, there is no other way
to rebuild your faith in me.

Her subtle misconceptions disguise her every being.
You know she loved you, or maybe that's just how it seemed.
It's all lies that I thought were true, all the things that I thought I knew.
Didn't think I would ever, be a part of her...

Dreams like she would live forever.
Forever waiting to be redeemed.
Dreams like she would live forever.
Live like she had always dreamed.

This is your redemption.
There is no other way to rebuild your faith in me.
No second chances, there is no other way
to rebuild your faith in me.

Dreams like she would live forever.
Live like she had always dreamed.

This is your redemption. (It's your redemption)
There is no other way to rebuild your faith in me.
No second chances (No second chances), there is no other way (No other way)
to rebuild your faith in me.
