October Winds

Cara Dillon

When you feel so tired trying
When you ask and no-one knows
When your heart is tired fighting
When you feel like letting go
Take this love I've freely given
Take this dream I'm wishing forHow long is forever
If I can't see you anymore
I'll miss you most whenever October winds begin to blowWell these days have lost their meaning
And these nights can feel so cold
Endless days not ever knowing
What is all this suffering for
Take these words "so sad to leaveing"
Take this breath I breathe that's warm
Take these tears so softly falling
Take these love forever moreHow long is forever
If I can't see you anymore
I'll miss you most whenever October winds begin to blow
