Sad

Pearl Jam

All the photographs are peeling and colors turn to gray, he stayed in his room with memories for days, he faced an undertow of future's laid to waste, embraced by the loss of one he could not replaceand there's no reason that she'd passed and there is no god with a plan, it's sad and his loneliness is proof, it's sad he could only love you, it's sadthe door swings through a passing fable a fate we may delay, we say holding on, live within our embrace eleven nights, he laid in bed hoping that dreams will bring her back, it's sad and his loneliness is cruel, it's sad he could only love you, it's sadholding his last breath, believing he'll make his way but she's not forgotten he's haunted
he's searching for escape

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/