

Sincerely, Me

Better Than Ezra

I can still recall
The way you looked that fall in your favorite dress
The day before you left
And since that time, I wrote a simple rhyme Well, I miss you and the things you do
The time we had, the good and bad
The day we met that I can't forget
Signed, 'Sincerely, me' Are you cross at your loss?
But could you be more obsessive
If I'd given you the chance
But since you asked, a reply but it's the last And I miss you and the things you do
The time we had, the good and bad
The day we fought, and the buzz we caught
Signed, 'Sincerely, me' Oh, my God, and don't forget P.S.
I moved away to a new address
It's far away and I think it's best
Signed, 'Sincerely, me' Why can't it be like it was?
The rain falls, the summer ends
Why can't it be like it was?
You always said, you'd never go away And I confess, I was such a mess
But I drove for fifteen hours
On that nasty Greyhound bus
And I've returned, you'd think that I would have learned But I miss you and the things you do
The times we had, the good and bad
The day we met that I can't forget
Signed, 'Sincerely, me' Could you really be a bitch like that?
Broke my door when you stole the cat
Someone said that you even laughed
Signed, 'Sincerely, me' Why can't it be like it was?
The rain falls, the summer ends
Why can't it be like it was?
You always said, you'd never go away I miss you
And I miss you
I miss you And I miss you
The times we had, the good and bad
The day we met that I can't forget
The face you make when you masturbate
Our bed in the moonlight The time we fought, you were so distraught
The time you had [Incomprehensible]
God knows I apologize

Signed, 'Sincerely, me' Why can't it be like it was?
The rain goes, the sun returns
Why can't it be like it was?
You always said, you'd never go away
You'd never go away
You'd never go away Signed, 'Sincerely, me'
Signed, 'Sincerely, me'
