Trillion Things

Gus Black

I can tell a trilliion things
From the way you walk
You can tell me everything
That I'm not
It's alright
It's alright
Honey we lost control
It's all lies... it's all lies
You can tell the air I brath
From the way I talk
Even so you don't believe
What I'm not
Your whole life
Your whole life
Someone tought you so
It's all lies. it's all lies
I just can't let you go
I just can't be controlled
We share in every lie
A bleeding nose, sharin' every lie
I just can't let you go
I just can't be controlled
We share in every lie
A bleeding nose, sharin' every lie
It's alright
It's alright
Honey we lost control
Of your whole life
Your whole life
Cuz somoene taught you so
It's all lies... it's all lies
It's all lies... it's all lies
All lies
