He'd Still Love Me

Lynn Anderson

You're here to tell me just how much he loves you
And he'll do anything you want him to
And you think he'll follow you to the end of the world
But before you pack your bags I'd better warn you girl
Other girls have been in love with him
And the only chance you'll ever have is very slim
And you think your dreams would all come true if he were free
But he's not and if we were he'd still love me
He'd still love me because he remembers the little things I've done
Like ironing shirts and pressing suits when he had only one
And knowing this you're still expecting me to set him free
But I won't and if I did he'd still love me
And knowing this you're still...
