Hurt Not Broken

Kaci Brown

I wanna kick you in the face
And throw your clothes out my window
But I won't do what you've done
And I keep tearing photographs
Just to glue them back together
Sure I can forget but it won't make it better
Cause I'm hurt bad
As long as I'm not broken
I won't stop giving us a try
But I don't know
What we're gonna build this love on
If the trust we had is gone, gone, gone
Is gone (gone)
Why can't we be done with this
Can't you see it isn't working
All the time we spent

From here to hell and back again
How do we make promises
Knowing we'll never keep them
Sure, I can pretend
It's easier than leaving
Cause I'm hurt bad
As long as I'm not broken
I won't stop giving us a try
But I don't know
What we're gonna build this love on
What we're gonna build this love on
Cause I'm hurt bad
As long as I'm not broken
I won't stop giving us a try
But I don't know
What we're gonna build this love on
If the trust we had is gone
