

Heavenly Blue (Aldnoah.Zero)

Amalee

This is how a legend is born
It's nothing more than a bouquet of lies, ink burning darker than black
But it's a curse you will live with, a curse you will die with

Forever reaching for things that don't exist

Nonetheless this godforsaken path that you walk
It is a curse in itself, an inescapable crime
But it's a beauty I'll guard until the end of time (sodistia)

Rain melts down from the stars, falling from azure skies
All at once turning this world's every hue into blue
Granted a simple choice: Stay mute or raise your voice
I for one want to find out just how far you can be heard

At a glance we both were falling for this world, enchanted by its light
Could this be the place we finally belong?
For all of humanity, I will take the stage alone
And somehow manifest a roaring symphony
We were born for flight before the light of the dawn

Murmur sweet nothings to me
It's nothing more than a whisper of pain,
A thousand knives to my heart
Inside it boils my darkness, that sea of pitch black
I fear that I'm addicted, now there's no going back

I have fallen deeply for the haze of your smile
The brilliant pure radiance drowning in cold ambience
But it's a beauty I'll guard until the end of time (mistioso)

Where is our motherland? Could it be where we stand?
Do you think maybe in another life we were here?
Everything we will seek “ Everything we will feel
All depends on how far the two of us can cast our reach

At a glance we both were falling for this world, enchanted by its light
All its beauty more divine when unattained
Hear our one and only wish “ Hear it calling out your name
It's slowly trembling in arms of darkness

We extend our hands before the light of the dawn

kantisti sonta dia maliti ola
(dia) adita asole imente salita martita amisti ola dia malita sola adito (sali) idiya masole isto gloria

One and all are falling deeply for this world, enchanted by its light Could it be thanks to that distant melody?
For all of humanity, we will take the stage as one
And somehow manifest a roaring symphony
Take your dreaming heart and set it free
As we reach out for the same horizon “ toward that light “
The one within our dreams
Even though it's far away, I believe in our resolve
If this is meant to be we will find a way
Put your faith in me and reach for that HEAVENLY BLUE
