Roxy

Jet Black Alley Cat

She said her name was Roxy And how could I forget it?
Can't roll willing trouble
Straight outta Manhattan What a one hearted beauty
Were we too much damage?
She'd cry in her free time Made love with the virgins Oh, she's just a ... beam a ... beam
Lost in her head A battle, watch your back or leave She'll do you a mess
Lovely and lonely And so unholy She's magic
And she calls herself Roxy, Roxy, Roxy And strung out on everything
Oh, this is madness Girl gone bad Do you know Roxy? She lives on the freeway
Red hair in the summer It's never been worthless Any more than another
She fell in love with the lead night Knows dangerous dreams end
Always go to bed wondering If anyone else cared Oh, she's just a ... beam a ... beam
Lost in her head A battle, watch your back or leave She'll do you a mess Love it when she's angry
And when she's crazy It's magic
And she calls herself Roxy, Roxy, Roxy And strung out on everything
Oh, this is madness Girl gone bad Do you know Roxy? She leans on the edge She runs with her heart
Whatever they said Is never enough She belongs to the wild
A long time with no end These sexy drugs, no
She'll never come back One hearted beauty No one could control her
Yeah Roxy, Roxy, Roxy And strung out on everything
Oh, this is madness Girl gone bad Roxy Oh Roxy, Roxy yeah
