Rise Inside

Killswitch Engage

Rise inside, free your mind
Raise your fist to signify
We stand in defiance of hatred and deception
If I stand alone I will fight for youThe time has come to make a difference
Why have we forsaken love?The time has come
To raise our voices
So rise up and fight with me
Embrace what we haveIt might be the last time in this life we will rise
If we find the strength to unify
Hatred is a weakness, you become the victim
I believe love will overcomeTime has come to make a difference
Why have we forsaken one another?
