

Can't Stand the Night

Accept

Fallin tears, a broken heart
Here I sit as time goes by
Cause all I had has gone forever
Cant stand the nightThe fun we had, I knew so well
That somethin so deep inside
The last few days have been pure hell
Cant stand the nightLove, you tore my world apart
But still I cant escape
You touched me and you hold me
The nights are hard to takeI know her body, her hair, her eyes
I know she should belong to me
But shes a one mans girl forever
Lovin deeply why not meLove why do I take you
And why do you take me
Take my breath
Or you take my heartAll you give is pain
A curse upon your name
Cant you see it isnt right
Cant stand the nightTell me where I have gone wrong
Give me a reason why
Tell me how to win her back
Cant stand the nightLove why do I take you
And why do you take me
Take my breath
Or you take my heartAll you give is pain
A curse upon your name
Cant you see it isnt right
Cant stand the nightFallin tears, a broken heart
Here I sit as time goes by
Cause all I had has gone forever
Cant stand the nightOceans filled with tears
And mountains made of pain
And my eyes are sad each time
The night it comes back againLove why do I take you
And why do you take me
Take my breath
Or you take my heartAll you give is pain
A curse upon your name
Cant you see it isnt rightLove why do I take you

And why do you take me
Take my breath
Or you take my heart All you give is pain
A curse upon your name
Cant you see
