

Star Now

Bilal

You took the rain
She closed her eyes and called his name
The oceans crashed, the thunder came
She fell into his arms
A virgin's tears rode from her eyes
But all he could think about was pussy
It was made for you
Star now
You shine like a star now
Your skin will glow like a star now
Your eyes will glitter like a star now
Your friends all know you're a star now
You have a smile like a star now
Show the world your stars now
Oh to shine forever more
