

Whose Heart Are You Breaking Tonight?

Connie Francis

Whose heart are you breaking tonight?
Who's kissing and holding you tight?
Who's looking in your eyes and sighing helplessly?
Who's listening to your lies, those lies you told to me? I can't help but wonder somehow
Who's playing the fool for you now
While sleeping or waking, while my heart is aching
Whose heart are you breaking tonight? I can't help but wonder somehow
Who's playing the fool for you now
While sleeping or waking, while my heart is aching
Whose heart are you breaking tonight?
