Sunday Mornin' Comin' Down

Kris Kristofferson

Well I woke up Sunday morning

With no way to hold my hand, didn't hurt

And the beer I had for breakfast wasn't bad

So I had one more for dessertThen I fumbled through my closet for my clothes

And found my cleanest dirty shirt

And I shaved my face and combed my hair

And stumbled down the stairs to meet the dayI'd smoked my brain the night before

With cigarettes and the songs that I'd been pickin'

But I lit my first and watched a small kid

Cursin' at a can that he was kickingThen I crossed the empty street

And caught the Sunday smell of someone fryin' chicken

And it took me back to somethin'

That I'd lost somehow, somewhere along the wayOn the Sunday morning sidewalk

Wishing Lord that I was stoned

'Cause there's something in a Sunday

That makes a body feel aloneAnd there's nothin' short of dyin'

Half as lonesome as the sound

On the sleepin' city sidewalk

Sunday mornin' comin' downIn the park I saw a daddy

With a laughin' little girl who he was swingin'

And I stopped beside a Sunday school

And listened to the songs that they were singin'Then I headed back for home

And somewhere far away a lonely bell was ringin'

And it echoed through the canyons

Like the disappearing dreams of yesterdayOn the Sunday morning sidewalk

Wishing Lord that I was stoned

'Cause there's something in a Sunday

That makes a body feel aloneAnd there's nothin' short of dyin'

Half as lonesome as the sound

On the sleepin' city sidewalk

Sunday mornin' comin' down
