

Brightest Diamond

Mexicolas

Sometimes I kiss the neck of anticipation
As you're putting everything back in its place
I lose myself for days in the architecture
As you walk down every pavement on your face

Shine, like the brightest diamond, you
Shine, like the brightest diamond, you
Shine, like the brightest diamond
Shine

Sometimes I kiss the mouth of expectation
In case the taste should linger on my lips
My inhibition dances on the inside
'Cause it's in every touch on your fingertips
Now everybody craves your adulation
'Cause everybody wants to see you

Shine, like the brightest diamond, you
Shine, like the brightest diamond, you
Shine, like the brightest diamond
Shine

Now everybody wants to rule the empire
And everybody waits their turn to shine
But you're still losing days in architecture
As if your favorite way of killing time

Ohhh woahh (x4)

Shine, like the brightest diamond, you
Shine, like the brightest diamond, you
Shine, like the brightest diamond
Shine

(Shine) like the brightest diamond
(Shine) like the brightest diamond
