Solitaire

Kamelot

On a dim December morning
A glass of "I forgot the name"
I can't turn wine to water
I won't come back again
And the minutes turn to hours
I keep spinning cards that look the same
And I so await the moment... to talk to you
Please shine oh night my dear, embrace me
It's time again, all light is banned
My soul is free, and blessed to see
Sometimes when I'm out of reach, and sometimes when I'm there
That is when our souls agree and join in Solitaire
Sometimes when my will to love has gone away
That is when I hear your name
Now the pale sunlight is blinding
It's here to claim my sanity
And I just can't stand the waiting... to revive ecstasy
Please shine oh night my dear, embrace me

It's time again, all light is banned
My soul is free, and blessed to see
Sometimes when I'm out of reach, and sometimes when I'm there
That is when our souls agree to join in Solitaire
Sometimes when my will to love has gone away
That is when I hear
I won't sustain another day
My love, my darkness
Daylight reflects my starving soul
And open wounds for everyone to see
Sometimes when I'm out of reach, and sometimes when I'm there
That is when our souls agree to join in Solitaire
Sometimes when my will to love has gone away
That is when I hear you
Sometimes when I'm out of reach, and sometimes when I'm there
That is when our souls agree to join in Solitaire
Sometimes when my will to love has gone away
That is when I hear your name

(I wanna hear your name... hear your name)
