Dust

Sleeper

and at the other end of life youll sit beside yourself, was there ever someone else?purposeful thinking? how long will you spend dreaming, with your hours on the leave?its what becomes of us when we live because we must then we settle with the dustso breathe in words and save time open minds and close eyesand at the other end of life ill sit beside myself, and was there ever someone else?purposeful thinking its long that ive been dreaming, with my hours on the leavewhat became of us? have i lived because i must?
will i settle with the dust?oh ill
open minds and close eyes
