

If I Run

The Harters

My heart has arrived
Love lives in your eyes
And I need to know
What you see in mine
I've been shattered and healed
Searching for something that's real
Where do you stand
How do you feel

If I run will you run after me
If I walk will you wait patiently
If I fall will you have sympathy
If I run if I run will you run after me

Yeahhhhhhh

I dream of a place of white satin and lace
Black on a tie and cake on my face
Wickered rocking chairs
Salt and peppered hair
And that day comes round
Will you still be there

If I run will you run after me
If I walk will you wait patiently
If I fall will you have sympathy
If I run if I run will you run after me

Yeahhhhhhh

Baby
If I run
Ohhh
If I
If I
If I run will you run after me
If I walk will you wait patiently
If I fall will you have sympathy
If I run if I run

If I run will you run after me
If I walk will you wait patiently
If I fall will you have sympathy
If I run if I run will you run after me

Oh Yeahhhhhh

My heart has arrived
