Muse

who's so phoney and always surrounded? stop you're screaming, no one can hear all the scars on your skin, post no bills who you were was so beautiful
remember who... who you were hide from the mirror, the cracks and the memories hide from your family, they won't know you now for all the holes in our soul host no thrills who you were
memories who... who you were
