

Devil's Signs

Evenoire

He came to abduct me in the evening
I waited for his hollow embrace I felt alive "Dance with me 'till the morning light" he said "Never cry for me I would destroy you heart Under the moon I'm just the desire of the wildest night before sunrise Slowly moving into your arms heaven becomes hell: dance of death
In the wood our breathing Silence, false eyes so pure Snow turned to fire I followed him 'till the secret tree valley was burning under our feet I felt alive "Don't be afraid of me" he said taking my hands "Just close your eyes and fall tonight with me" Under the moon I'm just desire of the wildest nights before the sunrise Slowly moving into your arms
heaven becomes hell: dance of death
Flames around, he was the Evil Jumping down of the cliff dragged me into hell On an ancient stone lies the shadows of that wicked love: the evil'signs
