

Clown

Global Citizen

the travelling circus has come to town but what the fuck is up with the clown the clown has forgot how to laugh the clown has forgot how to laugh you've got to admire him for having the gaulle after all, a clown is meant to plat fool but this one is serious, he thinks he knows best he listens to no-one, put him out to rest the clown has forgot how to laugh
the clown has forgot how to laugh
the clown has forgot how to laugh
the clown has forgot how to laugh he hires pole dancers to add to the view but the great pretender is still so see-through they've got great tits and are shaking their arse there's no hiding the fact that the show is a farce it's time he was put out to grass it's time he was put out to grass
the clown has forgot how to laugh
the clown has forgot how to laugh there's not a musical bone in his body his clothes were once smart but now just look shoddy he was always more worried about how he looked but what of great choruses, memorable hooks? the clown has forgot how to laugh
the clown has forgot how to laugh
the clown has forgot how to laugh
the clown has forgot how to laugh the clown has forgot how to laugh
the clown has forgot how to laugh
it's time he was put out to grass
it's time he was put out to grass

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>