

The World Is a Ghetto

War

Walkin' down the street, smoggy-eyed
Looking at the sky, starry-eyed
Searchin' for the place, weary-eyed
Crying in the night, teary-eyed Don't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghetto Don't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghetto Wonder when I'll find paradise
Somewhere there's a home, sweet and nice
Wonder if I'll find happiness
Never give it up now I guess Don't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghetto Don't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghetto Don't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghetto Don't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghetto The world is a ghetto
