Stronger

Trust Company

Can you save me, will you fail me now?
It's almost over 'cause you've faded out, again
Will you break me when you're holding me down?
I will escape you and I'll
I'll push you closer to the ground
'Cause you're the one that's going down
And I am stronger now since you crawled away
You're so far away and I am stronger now
Since you crawled away, since you crawled away
Never gonna save me, you just shut me out
And now it's over 'cause I'm stepping out, again
Never gonna break me, just try and hold me down
I will escape you and I'll
I'll push you closer to the ground
'Cause you're the one that's going down

And I am stronger now since you crawled away
You're so far away and I am stronger now
Since you crawled away, since you crawled away
You want to tear me down, you want to hold me down
You can't control me now, you cannot take me out
You cannot save me now because I'm stronger now
And I am stronger now since you crawled away
You're so far away and I am stronger now
Since you crawled away, since you crawled away
And I am stronger now since you crawled away
You're so far away and I am stronger now
Since you crawled away, since you crawled away
You want to tear me down, you want to hold me down
You can't control me now, you cannot take me out
You cannot save me now because I'm stronger now
