Afterlife

Ikon

I'll live forever
And see beyond the stars
And I'll love forever
Then fall into your armsI'll cry forever
And flood the world apart
I'll hate forever
And burn your wooden heartAn omen waits for all
Some things will always be
And stand the test of timeWill you spare my soul
Or will you set me free
No man will ever know
Forever I must roamI'll reap forever
A tale so lost in doubt
And you'll sleep forever
There will be no way outIf you cry forever
Why drown in your own sorrow
Why care forever
When there is no tomorrowAn omen waits for all
Some things will always be
And stand the test of timeWill you spare my soul
Or will you set it free
No man will ever know
Forever I must roamTo the darkest star I wake
In the evening moon I take
When I see you there
I fall beyond despairAn I'll live forever (4)
