My Home Town

The Perishers

I'll take you back to my home town
I'll show you where my feet first touched ground
I'll take you through the streets where love grew
I'll take you through the streets I once knewIf you wanna know
I suggest we go
If you really wanna know
We'll definitely goI'll take you back to my home town
Back to where they broke me down
I'll take you through the streets where rage grew
Through the streets I thought I knewIf you really wanna know
I suppose we have to go
If you really really wanna know
We'll definitely goIf you wanna know why I cry at night
If you wanna know why I'm so uptight
You must come with me back to my home townI'll take you back to my home town
The place I wanna leave behind
I'll take you through the streets where I grew
Up to be the man, you once knewIf you wanna know why I cry at night
If you wanna know why I'm so uptight
You must come with me back to my home townIf you wanna know why I cry at night
If you wanna know why I'm so uptight
You must come with me back to my home townIf you wanna know why I cry in my sleep
If you wanna know, you must come with me
Just grab your coat now let's leave for my home town
