

Sacred Lies

Satyrian

Sweet sovereign, one last glance
Sinking slow in rapture romance.
Nothing left but liquid pain,
Floating tears and velvet rain.

No more sunrise, no more delights
When endless darkness is all around me.
Eternal grief, from this despite,
A smile of hatred - the last I could see.

The final gate was closed tonight,
But tell me why I may live and come by.

Sacred lies...
Sacred lies... Explore the mysteries of death.
Sacred lies... This will be my fate the end I dread.

The fade I feel, the ghost I see
Someday I'll cross the edge within me.
The joy of dying crashes pain
And silence within me.

Desires and delights,
Hours days and years
To feel from the regret,
To pray for tears.

I am falling down into decay ,
I will never see the light of day again.

No more sunrise , no more delights
When endless darkness is all around me
The final gate was closed tonight.
But tell why i may live and come by.

Sacred lies...
Sacred lies... Explore the mysteries of death ,
Sacred lies... This will be my fate the end i dread.

The fade I feel the ghost I see,

I'll cross the edge within me.
The joy dying , the price is paid
And the silence of the dying in me.

Sacred lies...

Sacred lies... Explore the mysteries of death
Sacred lies... This will be my fate the end i dread
Sacred lies... Explore the mystries of death ,
Sacred lies... This will be my fate the end i dread
Sacred lies...
