

For Myself

Nina Simone

For myself
I must learn for myself
Not from what someone else
Has said or done And so I live my life
From day to day
While feeling my way
Just like a child
For myself
I must learn for myself The future that some else
May say will come
May never be
What destiny holds for me
Let me see
For myself!
