Something for the Pain

Zeromancer

Something for the pain inside me That will never die The pain inside me That will never dieMy heart bleeds, look at you hiding All the things you endure me I need you here with me breathing Wanting you to believe meSomething for the pain inside me That will never die The pain inside me That will never dieI see you in all of these faces Blush with shame when I think of you And your pale skin I sell my soul for youHush Hush Never enough, never enough Hush Hush Never enough, never enoughHush Hush Never enough, never enough Hush HushThe pain inside me that will never die The pain inside me that will never die The pain inside me that will never dieSomething for the pain inside me That will never die
