

King in the Mirror

Anna F.

I am still Cannot feel
There's silence
I am an island I am still
And my will
Is broken
I am frozen I'm the king in the mirror
Queen of the shy
The hero is hidden for so long
I'm the king in the mirror
Not in real life
And I've looked in the mirror for too long What to do
Make a move
We're flying
Still hiding What to do
See it through
To deny it
Is lying I'm the king in the mirror
Queen of the shy
The hero is hidden for so long
I'm the king in the mirror
Not in real life
And I've looked in the mirror for too long I want to be
Where I can see
Where you just looking back at me
I want to be
What I can see
But you just looking back at me I'm the king in the mirror
Queen of the shy
The hero is hidden for so long
I'm the king in the mirror
Not in real life
And I've looked in the mirror for too long
For too long
