Slip

Lit

I should've called but it was late and you were sleeping, my dear
I would hate for you to hear what I was putting you through
I'm tryin' hard to be the man I know that you think, I am
I'm really glad you weren't there but now I wish you were here'Cuz we're so wonderful
And so untouchable
And just when I thought it was under control
Everything just starts toThe pillow burns, I toss and turn from all of the things, I say
You should've known better than to ever listen to me'Cuz we're so wonderful
And so untouchable
And just when I thought it was under control
Everything just starts toSlip
Right through my fingers
Finding it's way to the tips
Well I'll try and forget
(Try and forget)
But all that I taste is your lips
Cryin' and kissin' meWe're so wonderful
And so untouchable
You're the biggest part of me
We're so wonderful
And so untouchable
And just when I thought it was under control
Everything
EverythingSlip
(Slip)
Right through my fingers
Finding it's way to the tips
Well I'll try and forget
(Try and forget)
But all that I taste is your lips
Cryin' and kissin' meSlip
(Slip)
Right through my fingers
Finding it's way to the tips
Well I'll try and forget
(Try and forget)
But all that I taste is your lips
Cryin' and kissin' me
