Call me 50, yeah call me Ferrari, call me New York
My alias, my name change; nigga I ain't playin games
 New York, for short call me N.Y
 New York, for short call me N.Y
You gon' cause my next felony fuckin 'round, I get the Mac blowin
 My heart colder than that corner you get clapped on
 The crack gon' show you the barrel, get my jack on I'm hungry eatin off plates we bag packs on
 Gran turismo, Masi', I just lean back on 'em
 Stack on 'em, yeah rack after rack on 'em
Ghetto pharmacist man so I'm cuttin the smack for 'em
 Pot bubblin yola, I cook that for 'em
 Nigga get in the way I'll bang the strap on him
Then line up the wolves and scream "Attack!" on 'em
 I'm cool, I'm tryna keep cool, 'til I snap on 'em
 I'm comin for a nigga HEAD when I black on 'em
 It's 50, yeah call me Ferrari, call me New York
My alias, my name change; nigga I ain't playin games

 New York, for short call me N.Y
 New York, for short call me N.Y
 50, yeah call me Ferrari, call me New York
My alias, my name change; nigga I ain't playin games
 New York, for short call me N.Y
 New York, for short call me N.Y
I hate when you niggas do shit then make me ask why
 If you the homie why you won't go and testify?
 Why you wanna see a nigga get the chair and fry?
 I'll grow old in the yard starin' at the sky
 Why you hurt your friends more than your enemies?
And why you don't sit and stroll through your memories?
 Why is the question I ask
 Shit was all good when you were splittin' up stacks
 That shit you told the people got 'em under max
Now why, would you wan' do some shit like THAT?
 When that barrel on yo' forehead, don't ask why
 Shhh, quiet, close your eyes and die!
